Course Name: Multisensory Reading

Credit: 1 credit

Grades: 9 – 12

Administrative Action – February 13, 2019

Multisensory Reading is designed to provide reading instruction to students who have reading disabilities. The curriculum is a multisensory approach that incorporates the Read 180 program, a blended learning solution that utilizes technology with teacher-led instruction. Whole and small group lessons are taught using fiction and nonfiction pieces. Students will identify central ideas and details, identify and analyze literary elements, make inferences, identify text structure, cite text evidence and determine meaning of unfamiliar words using context clues. Students will keep a yearlong reading journal recording their use of reading strategies while independently reading.
